Reports

Channelalbany.org – Board recommends that Chair send a letter to Joe Piazza asking that the web site be taken down, social networking sites be taken down, etc.

NSRT update:

- Sony camera repair estimated at $600, new camera $1800
- New School is developing and hosting channelalbany.tv
- Producers are not saving their content to their own devices, but will be instructed to do so. There is no guarantee that their content will be saved.
- Michelina investigating an open PO at Best Buy for studio supplies
- New School addressed virus problems with PC at studio, bought new hard drive and installed it using New School IT talent. New School requests that City provide future IT assistance.
- There was a reference to possible changes to St. Rose training to more closely align with equipment/software at studio.

- Live streaming from City Hall was discussed.
- Joe Alindato will receive informal training from Zeb Schmidt.
- The studio requires two tables for additional editing stations, one of which arrived today. Requires copy of Sony Vegas.

Next meeting Thursday, October 10, 2013, 6:00PM, Mayor's Conference Room, Albany City Hall.
